

Alaska

or

6-9-97

Bust

6-9-97

Mon.

10 AM → Got a late start.
Drove 375 Miles, stopped at K.O.A Near Columbus, Ohio Saw wild Turkey standing in grassplot near Cumberland.
Hunted for 20 years in woods & never saw one. One long stretch about eight miles we saw fourteen deer. All roadkills. One was a nice Buck in Velvet. Sorry Joey we couldn't stop for the 'Rack' 7:40 P.M.
now. Got here at 6 o'clock

James E. Jr.

June 10th. Tues

Left Columbus Ohio about 7 AM I think we drove about 150 miles.
The sun was shining everything 'Great'. We saw a Doe standing on the right sholder of the road & he couldn't make up his mind for a few seconds, but lucky for him & us he ran into the woods It was rolling about 60 so I could not have missed him. About 10:15 all the wheels came off?
That's just an expresion.

We pulled off the road for a bath room call & Marge noticed the wrong something wrong with the front of trailer on the right front. The trailer was coming apart. I knew it was serious I was prepared for everything but this. Anyway we even thought about trading the trailer but we couldn't get a good used one & a new one was out of the question. So we looked it over & decided we could fix it. We found a Walmart bought a calking gun & caulk. Some 4" angle brackets & went to work on it. We caulked it & got two brackets on

Trailer

then. The Thunder & Lightning hit. Were in ~~the~~ trailer now & its pouring but were safe & dry & the trailers dry. We drove  $\frac{1}{2}$  of Ohio all of Indiana & half of Illinois About 420 miles but we lost about  $2\frac{1}{2}$  hrs on the trailer. ~~all~~ Plus about a ~~few~~ mile rolling back up while they were cutting the grass along the highway. Twenty of ten getting a little tired. Well see what tomorrow brings

Bud's Father

6-11-97 Wied

8:40 Now. Talked to Allen & Sharon, ~~tried~~ <sup>tried</sup> to call Jimmy but no answer.

Left Ill. about 7:00 this morning drove about an hour & it was still 7:00. I didn't know we had a time change.

The day went pretty good just one small problem, the gray water tank was full & wouldn't empty but we handled it. Illinois is full of pig farms & all the little pigs had their own little door.

Cute huh! Saw 12 live deer & one or two road kills I know if you saw one. You saw, Never mind... Marge dozed about three minutes all day. Not many S. Grand mothers could do that. Drove 522 miles, have to admit right now its about my limit See Ya.

Sioux City S. Dakota

Jim Marty

Camp 4

9:30 at home

Thurs June 12 - 7:30 PM

Left about 7 this morning. Got here about 6:30. We are some. ~~ware~~ in ~~the~~ Wyoming. The car & Trailer ran great, doesn't sound like a big deal but when your rolling 65 MPH most of the day you don't want no trouble. I stopped on Rt 90 where there was a 75 mile speed limit. And 18 Wheeler was laying on its side in the grass plot facing us. A car was stopped in the other lane & a guy was looking from his car. I didn't know if the guy was still pinned in the cab or not. I knew I would have to get him out if I could, but when I got to the cab the guy came over & told me they already took him away. He didn't know how he was & he was watching the load. I rode 552 miles & I feel pretty good. Well well we'll see what tomorrow brings. You never know.

Everett Sr.

June - Fri the 13th.

Well: left Gillette WY about 6:30 AM... 460 miles later we are in Butte Montana. I got to tell about the worlds longest coal train. Its pulled by five Diesel engines & they pull one hundred & twenty five coal cars 6,900 feet long. Thats about a mile & a quarter. We saw most of it going through the mountains. They also had a Biker convention & they took over the whole highway. & all traffic had to stop. Over 10,000 bikes we saw a few hundred. Saw 100 antelopes two or three ~~together~~ together 4 mule deer. one road kill in velvet. one prairie dog. No speed limits in Montana - except slow down to 65 after dark. Stopped in Whitall & filmed old cars for Richard. ~~He~~ He orders parts from him. Should Be in Alberta Canada tomorrow evening.

Margy's Boy

Camp 6

Sat. Night June 14-97

I oftened wonderd what the poor people, did on a Sat night Now I know. We are in Alberta Canada. Came 472 miles today. Started off thick Fog & cold, had to turn the heater on. Came across <sup>another</sup> & 1/8 wheelers on its side, didn't look good for the driver. Hope he survived. We are in Calgary now. It has to be twice the size of Balto. Its very confusing at first. Everything is in Kilometers, The road sign said Speed limit 100., but thats 62 MPH. It keeps you thinking of the money - forget it. We had a head wind for about 150 miles I couldnt get over 50 MPH wide open. I must have pushed the floor board in. Im looking out the window now & the sun is finally leaving 10:03 You guys & probably sleeping.
~~Pa Pa~~ See ya

Pa Pa

Camp 7

Sunday Night - June 15

8:45 P.M. Left Calgary about 7 this morning, wind still blowing.
About ten miles out we came across a pick up truck ~~had~~ had a trailer on back. ~~He~~ rolled over & was back on his wheels. A car was also involved. He was on his side & the People looked ok, so we slowed up & kept on going. Had another time change. Would like to sleep but the sun is shining in my eyes.
Should be tired, drove 550 miles. I think you forget how big the U.S. & Canada is. I see why people fly out & then rent a car. We averaged 477 miles a day for a week. We are at the beginning. Dawson Creek The Army Corp of Engineers built & cut their way through the Youcan. in ten months. 1375 miles. We saw our first Moose. We saw Male deer yes. terday & today 9 o'clock here. Midnight in Balto. A guy & his kids were broke down 50 miles from now I got him going ok. I guess that's why we got the last campsite right on the end. I guess it don't hurt to help sombody sometime.

Good Samaritan Jimmy

Camp 8

June 16 - Mon Night 8:40 PM

Well we are in a Provincial Park on Summit lake. I'm charging a Video Batt from my Car Inverter. 12 Volts to 110. Had a little battery problem, but OK now. The day started off bad, Blew left rear tire on Van at 65 mph. I changed in & we were on our way.

Small stuff: Came across a dead horse & a mule deer.

Looks like it just happened

Saw one Fox two Moose

Four black Bears & one Grizzly

We got two Bears on tape

one Black Bear about 500 lbs

& the Grizzly about 700. Didn't drive to far today 350 miles

Were 3800 miles from home

No two days are alike, You don't no what's around the next curve

Marge is a real trooper. She already has written down what we might see tomorrow. We'll see, We'll see

Jimmy - The
Driving Fool

June 17 Tues Night 7:30

The good the bad & the Ugly' Followed a Water sprinkler truck over a eight mile detour. Mud Mud Mud. You ought to see the trail & Van. I taped it. Trailer door window coming out, but we fixed it. Stopped at Bank in city & changed some Traveler checks over to money. We were getting ripped off. OK Now. Saw two more Black Bears & one about two hundred lbs a Brown Bear. Three Moose. No tire trouble today. I saw 422 miles 4,147 miles from home. Also two Caribou. We pulled over to let some guys go by. Marge said what's that on the hill.
About a block away: When he started to walk we could see the spiral horns. A Doll sheep about 300 lbs. Got him on tape. Got here about 6:00 p.m. Getting tired. Got the next to last campsite. OK Yea! at Watson Lake. They have over 30,000 signs in the center of town. Got it on tape.

Van Driver

June 18

camp 10

Wed Night 8:35 I think:

Marge called Sharon about 5:45 9:45 Home time. No car problems.
Drove like a champ: 451 miles We averaged 4.55 a day for ten days. I think: Saw two wolves taped one. Big Moose in water, Taped him. God knows how many miles of Detours & mud. I wouldn't recomend any average person to pull a trailer from Barter to Fairbanks Alaska & back. Might have bit off a little more than I can chew. I was ok with the mud but Marge couldn't camp until we washed the Van & trailer. Alaska the biggest state in the Union & the speed limit is 55 Montana 75- Got to find a Barber tomorrow. Don't get me wrong, 'Hell or High Water' Were going all the way to Dead Horse & put my hand in the Arctic Ocean

Jim Martin Jr

Fairbanks camp 11 Midnight
at home

Thurs 19th. June 8:00 PM

Left Tok. Alaska this morning about 7 AM. No Van or trailer problems. Will probably change left front trailer tire before going to Anchorage. Was new when we left Balto. Small alignment problem. ('Small'). Have six spares altogether for Van & Trailer. Used three. Didn't drive very far today, about 275. Were 4,800 miles from home. The sign said Moose in area. About a mile down the road we spotted him off the road. I stopped & walked back about 1/2 a block, there wasn't other another soul within miles so I kept my eyes open. ('Small road'). I taped him & he didn't mind. Came up the road & saw Eielson Air Force Base. The road was next to the runway. I grabbed my Video Camera when I heard them winding up. You have got to see the tape. ('Aurora'). Right now we are in a nice little camp ground right on a lake. We are in Fair Banks Alaska.

Van driving - Tire changing Salmon eating - Jim

Camp 11

Fri June 20 7 PM.

Left this morning, drove 375 miles to Arctic Circle. I'll have to check it when I come home, <sup>a guy</sup> ~~he~~ said we were closer to Norway & Sweden than we were to Balto. That's across the North Pole. Very rough road the Dalton Hwy. We were going to <sup>the</sup> end but it's a thousand mile round trip. It would have shook our trailer to pieces. It was too far to drive even for me. The best I ever did was 668 miles. We saw a mother & fawn Moose. But we couldn't get a picture. We came across a road kill that I had to Tape A Genuine Timber wolf about 125 lbs. Tomorrow we are going yard saking in Fairbank & do ~~shop~~ some shopping 'Wow'. I have to take a day off driving hundreds of miles. Sunday we are going to Denali National Park. Mt McKinley & other stuff 5200 miles from home
Sack isn't it

Marty Martin

Sat June 21

Dear Diary - Another Sat Night & I aint got nobody! Thats wrong I got my girl Marge: Only drove 30 miles today. Went to some yard sales but the stuff was cheaper at Sears. Saw another 'Harley' convention.
Stopped & talked to the guys, they are very frindley. When you reach Seward you can get away with anything. Taped them.
Went to a Salmon Bake. Ate enough for four people! Did more shopping!
Got back about 2:45 & we took a nap Trying to learn to relax. Doing laundry right now. Going to Denali tomorrow - 'Mount McKinley' over four miles high Will probably leave for Anchorage Mon. morning. Got a Haircut today a woman cut it. Now I know why they call women Beauticians & men Barbers. I guess it will grow out by the time we get home.

No animals no car problems

Mech - Electrician - Plumber & Jim of all trades & tired too

Camp 11

Sun Night 9:30 June 22

Left this morning for Denali Nat park. Drove 461 miles altogether. Denali was no big deal. Just a 91 mile bus trip. Some people said was OK, some say forget it. It was probably OK because most of the people we saw have never been anywhere. You know I hear you & Bud & Lorraine & Jimmy have camped as long as we have. Blew another tire on van going across old Denali Hg. In all my road miles through all the years I have driven. This was the toughest stretch of all 115 miles over Scrubbing Board roads. Taped it. On the way back we saw three Moose. Moving down to Anchorage Tomorrow 6,703 miles from home

Doug's Idol
(me)

Camp 12

Monday Night 7:30 June 23

We are in Anchorage. Found a nice little camp ground before the city. Gota late start, had two tires mounted & gassed up. Drove 351 miles. Stopped & taped Mt McKinley. The first time was from about 40 miles away. The next time about 50 miles. The first time we saw it, we drove about 90 miles & we could still see it. It's about as high as from my house to Golden Ring Mall. Four miles high. We got straightened out on our ~~car~~ phone card but that's another story. Going to scope out the city tomorrow & see where the earthquake split the city in 1964

Lep's Brother Jim

Camp 12

June 24 Tues Night 6:00

Before I forget it, on a very clear day you can see Mt. Rainier from Anchorage '200 miles'. Today we toured Anchorage, taped where the earthquake of '64' split the city. When I went out when 'Pep' was in the service back in '50'. B.S. my way pass the guard. Taped around a little bit. When I went down were the salmon were jumping to fish ladders. Taped them. 'Shopping again'. Bought something you won't believe. You know it must be special for me to give 25 Bucks for it. Tomorrow we are heading south till the road runs out. Sooner or later I'm going to catch something big.

See ya then

(Brother Martin)
my name till I was 16

Wed Night 7:00 June 25

Comped on a Sound leading to the Pacific ocean. Right now I'm counting it & looking out our ft window at all the fishing boats coming in. I'm watching for min. I'm going out tomorrow on the 'Servant' a 40 footer. Its not a head boat, it only takes twelve people. Wouldn't it be something to catch one of those Halibut 10 & eleven lb trips. Took about three hrs to come from Anchorage. Only two very rough miles. Friday we go as far south & you can drive. This is a once in a lifetime trip. We'll never post this way again. Its a whole new world, a whole new way of life. In the past two weeks I haven't met anyone that was born here. Hope I got a fish story tomorrow.

Jim Martin

Camp #13

June 26 9:25 Thurs

(Happy Birthday Sher) Got up this morning. The wind was blowing about twenty five mph. & the trailer was rocking. Usually we don't care, but this was different. I was booked on a fish trip. Seventy five miles out in the Pacific. But I went to the dock & they said were going. I wasn't worried because I crossed The Atlantic four times & I've been out on boats before. Well anyway we left on time, & it's a three hr trip out. Everyone has a two fish limit on Halibut. Just big flounder without the scales. I had my limit in about two hrs. You keep releasing them until you get two keepers. I kept two, a twelve & fifteen pounder. They filet do them on the way back. Three hrs. Eleven hr. trip. Anyway we had a good trip. Taped it. Halibut - Sting Rays Cod & Sharks.

Pretty good day!
a what

James

Thu 27th

5:15

Now: overlooking high Buff on Bay of high tides. Beluga.

Saw three Caribu all in Velvet

On TV they look like ~~me~~ big Deer but they are big as horses.

Finally changed my air filter.

Got off Dusty Roads. Van running like a champ. Just turned over 117,000 miles on Speedo. No tire or trailer problems. Getting ready to bake Potatoes + Pork Chops. Coffee - Cookies

Canned Peaches. Need some candy

Saw a Eagle mounted at Welcome center. 8 1/2 feet from tip to tip

People say the earth will be overpopulated some day have never drove the way we go. Sometimes you can drive for 500 miles & never see nothing another soul except to gas up. Trees by the Dillions + Shmillions

of Dillions. (Whatever)

James Sir

Sat night 8:30

<sup>second</sup>
This is our ~~third~~ Sat night. We were whale watching last night until 11:00. We didn't see any, probably because the sun was too bright. Getting ready to have Angel food cake - Strawberries - Cool Whip.
Saw two big Eagles today - Taped them Went to a Spit today. A neat little town. Tomorrow we are going to Valdez. That's where the big Oil tanker ran aground. Also that's where the Alaskan pipe line ends. We have about another week here & then we are headed towards home.
It will probably take us about three weeks altogether, stopping in Minnesota a couple days.
God knows where we'll be next Sat. night. Tomorrow ends our third week.

Mr. Jimbo

Sun High 7:25 June 29

Tomorrow night will finish June.
God knows what will happen tomorrow. About  $\frac{1}{3}$  of the way here we saw a lot of cars + R.V.'s pull over so we had to stop. They were looking up the mountain. About a block up the hill we saw five Dall Sheep. Taped them. One Moose. Only drove 3 1/2 miles today. Stopped in little Punky Dink camp gr. 2 fire sights.
One left! The overflo is back in the woods. Scared to go there.
Lions + Tigers + B. You know Headed for Valdez tomorrow.
Only about two hundred miles
I should be there by lunch time Saw a giant Glacier. About two miles wide & 100 yards thick. Its about 70 degrees here + everybody cant wait until the heat wave breaks.

E.
James

Camp 16

July 1st. 5:30 PM. Mon.

Well today was different. We left Valdez a day early. Saw everything there was to see in one day. So we decided to head for TOC. Right on to Alaska Hwy. Before we left we had a Eagle perched over our Campsite. Taped him - four glasses - Climbed one mountain for forty minutes in low gear. Van popped a few times in the high altitude, but run like a champ. ~~It~~ used four oil filters so far. Only drove 250 miles today. No problems. Went to a Salmon Bake at the campground. We are going south to Haines & Scagway tomorrow. Will probably drive about half way tomorrow. 250 miles. Don't want to go too hard. Probably be back on Al-Can Hwy on the fifth. Can't keep my mind on my book. Oh Yea I bought something a few days ago. Don't even guess

Jimmy Dr.

Tues. Camp 17

July 2 9:40 Night time

We are in Hains Ala. We started off this morn in Alaska then the Yucatan then British Columbia then Alaska. Confusing isn't it. The only strick crossings are into the U.S. I thought we had drove mountains before but today is it. The last hill coming into Hains is nine miles long. We will have to climb it tomorrow.

Every time you gas up its about thirty dollars. Thats about every 125 miles. We drove about 90 miles & hadn't seen another soul, we couldn't believe it because about  $\frac{1}{2}$  mile up the road we <sup>saw</sup> something we couldn't believe.

It was two guys along side with their bikes. I had to stop and offered them some water. They were tickled to death to get their canteens filled. They had been purifying stream water with tablets & it didn't taste too good. Sometimes it helps to help other people. Had to slam on brakes or would have wiped out whole family. It looked like a mother duck or Mallard & about 6 or 7 little ones. All in single file strolling across road. We were only passing through but they live here.

James

July 3

9:23 PM

Camp 18

Thurs.

Diary Dear. I only have two dears in my life. One's my Diary. Had to ~~g~~ caulk trailer again, holding up real good. Rolling along about 55 when we both spotted it, a tackle box on the side of the road. Nobody behind me for miles, had to stop & walk back about  $\frac{1}{3}$  of a block. Took it. Ha Ha I usually say taped it. About ten miles outside of Haynes saw a old Ghost town. Probably early prospectors. Taped it. I keep calling it Whitemarsh. ~~It's~~ Its White Horse. A decent little town had two Gas Stations Eight gas pumps in all, all out of order. If you didn't stop for gas you wouldn't even slow up. Sign said Sorry for inconvenience, have a nice day. Gas gauge laying on Bone. But we handled it

Jan

Thurs.

Camp 19

Bang Bang July 4' 8:05 pm

(Have a little Faith + Trust in what tomorrow brings) part of a song (Because there are such things) I told you god knows what will happen tomorrow. I wonder what I'll be writing tomorrow night. Well today did it. Pulled into this camp ground & before I got the grill lit Marge said the pumps running but no water comes out. I could tell the way it sounded we were losing pressure somewhere. I walked around the trailer & water was pouring out underneath. I told her to shut it off. To make a long story short when the rear tandem tire blew I didn't know it. It was running like a champ. Well the steel belts were spinning around & cut the water line & the feed to the bathroom. Finally figured it out, so I cut the line under the sink & put a spark plug & hose clamp on. Everything works but the cold water in the bath room. We handled it.

Brother

Water pump ok. Martin Kitchen sink ok. Will have to run off of holding tank. Can fill it any time

July 5 - Sat night - 9:10

Looking out trailer window now + watching sun go down. Going to tape it. Another ok hum boring day. Left camp 7:30 AM, by 10 o'clock had seen Dall sheep Stone sheep - caribou - Fox
 Buffalo - Moose - two Rabbits
 + a Prairie Dog. Boring Boring Boring. 'Oh yeah' I almost forgot, we developed a bad vibration through the vehicle + I thought it might be the road. My girl co-pilot said bad tire. I got out + checked the road condition. Seemed ok. 'Bad tire - bad tire - I checked the joints - 'Bad tire' 'Bad tire' She was getting on my nerves. I know what it is - the lug nuts loose.
 Seemed ok 'Bad tire' 'Bad tire' Bugging me ~~now~~ now. Trailer hitch ok. Torsion bars ok. 'B.T. B.T.' I'll just have to shut her up, so I ran my hands around the inside of the tires (yep B.T.) Lucky guess.

Jim M.

Camp 21

July 6 9:30 PM

(You win some, you lose some) ~~at~~ + some are rained out! Not much excitement today. Saw these acres + acres of yellow fields. You know I can see Blue + Yellow Well when I spotted them I had to stop from 60 MPH + tape them. So you know they were brute yellow. Watching 60 mins. on TV right now. Marge swept the trailer out three times already, had to sweep off the bottom of my shoes. The campground is filled with Cottonwood Trees. + the ground looks like snow. Sticks like glue to your cloths + shoes. Taped it. ~~The Van~~ one Van problems. Trailer wall by fridge coming apart, handled it. Developed whine in drive line. Pulled over on flat ~~area~~ area + checked rear. Put in about a qt + a little more. Sounds good now. 'Had gear oil'. Thanks to Jimmy. Drove 10,000 miles so far.

Mr Marty

July 7 9:05

Just went out & checked my baby gave her one qt oil. Will put my last oil filter on in Minn.
Six so far. Thirty five lbs in all eight tires. Car & Van ok.
When you pound that Highway 4:50 miles. You're just thankful every thing is ok. We came through Customs this morning. And this tough looking Agent 550 lbs. & 7ft 4. With scars all over him slammed me up against the wall & stripped search me & said any fish or dropped antlers. Then he pistol whipped me & knocked my teeth out.
Confiscated my Caribou Rack & fined us 800 dollars. We were thinking that when it was our turn to move up to the window. He asked us about ten questions & told us to have a nice day. You can imagine how relieved we were when I could see the Border fading in the Rear View mirror.
That was enough excitement for one day.

Love
James

Camp 23

Tues Night 8:45 July 8

Right now were in the center of North America (Rugby North Dakota) The most interesting thing we saw today was a Wolf running down the road with a whole leg in its mouth. About three feet long, probably a deer or a lamb. The most unusual thing was a road kill. a cow or big calf. Drove 541 miles pulling a trailer. Try it sometime. They ~~says~~ <sup>say</sup> its a 'Long Long way to Tipperary'. That's about as far across Montana as Belto to Jacksonville Fla. I should be in Fish Trap Lake in Minnesota tomorrow. Called Sorraine yesterday, talked to Kate & told her where we are in Montana. She said are we going through ~~Ala~~ Alabama so we could finish our map.

We are behind a Motel with 'Hook Ups', plus Cable. We are watching the All Star game. A little tired now. So have a little Faith & Trust in what Tomorrow Brings!

Jimmy Jr

Camp #24

July 9

9:35 PM

'Fish Trap Lake' Minn. Were probably only about a couple of thousand miles from home. Got my licence - got the boat. I'll be up at six. I hope the pike are still here. Maybe some crappies. Not much excitement today, only driving. The trip is starting to beat us down but we are staying up. We are a very unequal couple, me & Marge. We spend all our time trying to keep each other up. We haven't been gone all that long, but it seems forever. I wouldn't recommend anyone to pull a trailer across the U.S. Through British Columbia - The Yukon - Alaska - The Arctic circle. I'm a driving fool but I've met my match. Plus the Alaska Key is 1400 miles through dust, rocks - detours. Slides. Hot & cold. Good & Bad. Tomorrow I'll probably be up a little

James

July 10 Thurs. 9:15 PM

Fish Trap Lake. Had four Great Northern hooked today, landed one about twenty four inches, also one rock bass. Tomorrow I'll get them good. We ran down to the store today, a little over 23 miles round trip. This state Minn. has the cheapest food, the cheapest gas on any State - Canada or Alaska Super high test gas $1.26 a gal Reg Unleaded 1.16. A deer ran through the camp gr. today. Were working our way back to you Babe. Sat morn we will be on our way back, probably four or five days. We left the house to drive the 'Alaska Hwy'. We did that. We ~~wanted~~ wanted to see & drive Alaska. We did that. We wanted to bring something for everybody. We did that. We saw the midnight Sun. Sitterly We saw the Bears - Griz. Brown - Black Fox - Wolves - Caribu - White tail & mule deer - Antelope - Moose Buffalo. Erms - Sheep & Sheep Sheep Cougar Ravens orioles birds. Ostridge Lomas. That's all I can recall right now
Seals - Whales Later
Jumbo

Camp 24
+3

Fris. Night 9:00 July 11

Fished again, caught one Northern siv yellow perch. Took a ride after I fished this morning & happened upon a yard sale.
Learned a little bit. The school teachers in Minn. get full pay when they retire. And all the adults in Ala. get 20,000 a year from the Government just for living & staying there. It seems they started that when they were building the pipeline and they never stoped. A guy pulled in next to us & I sneaked around & Video taped him setting up. He has a 5th wheel trailer & a F350 Ford Diesel. I missed it when the trailer fell off the wooden blocks. You would swear it was the Rancolophs were just about camped out.
It's getting harder to find something ~~excitement~~ exciting where ~~you~~ the big deal of the day is some one setting up.

Later
Jim Martin Sr.
Esp.

Sat night -

July 12

- is the loneliest loneliest night of the week. But not this time they are having a sq. dance up at the pavilion. I guess that's their big deal of the day. Well we might go up & check 'em' out. The wind was blowing due North & we were going due south. When an irresistible force met & immoveable object the gas tank loses. Oh Well its only money. I believe we have encountered ever road condition & weather pattern. Hot - Cold - Rain sleet - Wind - calm - Hail. Thunder - Lightning - Dusty - mud rocks - slides - gravel. But my baby's still running like a champ. Store coming apart, floor sinking. No big deal. We know were headed for (Balmer Md)

Everett

Sun July 17 - 8:00

Drove 505 miles today. I said I wasn't going to do that any more. It's a little to far. They say 'Fools rush in where angels fear to tread' Been there - Did that. We are at a nice campground in Indiana. I changed my eighth tire. Blew out three - Wore out four & one I'm scared of. We entered Iowa, drove completely through it & half of Indiana. We must have personally seen a million acres of corn. Corn as far as the eye can see on both sides of the road. There are no mountains. I don't know why anyone would live in Iowa. I can't even think of a song with Iowa in it. I never met any one from Iowa.

J. Martin Sr

Camp 27

Mon. night July 14 - 8:18

This was going to be a leisurely day, had time to kill. The whole world was going east on Rt 70 E. I noticed traffic starting to slow up & stop. We sat there about 4 hours & a lady said she just heard over the radio that two tractor trailers were laying on their side. Well that shut down the interstate. She said there was a massive fuel spill. We knew what that meant. So I checked it out & the grass plot was flat enough. You know I made a u turn, don't you. Of course every body else was following suit. To make a long story short. We are in a campground now, & everything's fine. Went down to the fishpond & talked to a guy from Minn. He just came back from Balto. He wanted to know all about Alaska & The Alaska Hwy. Well I schooled him because I drove it. I mean we drove it.

J E Marty

Tues Night 8:25 July 15

It's a thin line between happy + sad. Between coming + going, between a frown + a smile. It only takes a second to change the whole world. We have said hundreds of times.

(What a difference a day makes)

We are in a little campground near Hancock. Twenty four hrs. from now we should be all unpacked + sitting in our recliners. It's mixed emotions we have, 'It's Over'. But it's so good to be going home + see everybody.

~~It seems~~ It seems like we have been gone a year. You know how it is when you spend three days at one campground and four at the next, then you come home. But this is our 28th. campground. It's enough to ~~blow~~ blow your mind. I never had anything in my life to beat me down but this trip was close. You can't tell it, you have to live it. If I hadn't of had my copilot, I don't know. But we have learned a lot of respect + things we never knew about each other. Like I said ('It's Over')

Margy's Husband

4,475	miles from	Amsterdam	✓	Holland
2,839	"	Chicago	—	Ill.
4,313	"	Copenhagen	✓	Denmark
4,430	"	Hamburg	✓	Germany
2,780	"	Honolulu	✓
4,487	"	London	✓	England
4,683	"	Paris	✓	France
2,015	"	San Francisco	✓	Calif.
1,445	"	Seattle	—	Wash.
3,460	"	Tokyo	✓	Japan
5,200	"	Baltimore	✓	Md.

I drove a 14,000 Mile Round trip
 (We did)